2010 International Missionary Retreat

The 15th annual International Missionary Retreat, held in Kusadasi, Turkey, was one of the best we have ever had. We had 39 people present, including eight missionary families representing Kenya, Lithuania, Moldova, Romania, Russia, Ukraine and the United States. The drama-based Vacation Bible School our team put on for the 14 Missionary Kids was fantastic and the kids will never forget it. The worship services were great too. Shawn Crane led us in worship, several missionaries shared specials, and I brought a series on "Passion." God really moved in the services and I think everyone went home refreshed, encouraged, challenged, and revived. Praise the Lord!

Another blessing of the retreat this year was the Seven Churches of Asia tour arranged by Jack Story. Most of the families that attended the retreat also participated in the tour the weekend prior to the retreat. Seeing the biblical sites, reflecting on the missionary ministry of Paul, and sharing devotionals at each location, enhanced the retreat dramatically. I also suspect it will affect the missionaries' preaching and teaching for years to come.

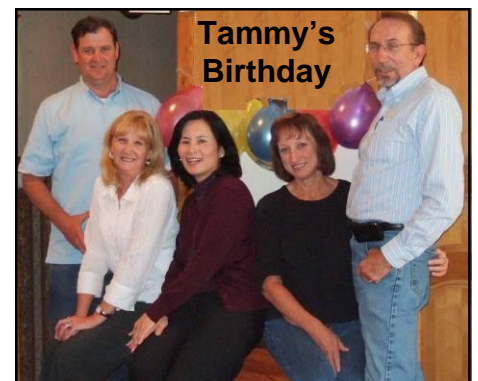

Worship Service

Special Thanks To:

- The churches and individuals who supported the retreat financially.
- Our VBS team; Alison Crane, Betty Reece, Jeanean Wilson, Pat Story.
- Shawn Crane for leading the worship as well as working in the VBS.
- Jack Story, travel agent extraordinaire, who arranged our travel, our tours, and all the meeting arrangements.

Tammy's Birthday

Parenting Triumphant TCK Conference
St Petersburg, Russia

St Petersburg, Russia

After the retreat in Turkey, Brenda and I spent ten days in Russia with Kevin & Tammy Plaster. It was a blessing to be able to speak in services for Kevin and in chapel services at the International Academy. I was also one of the featured speakers at a Triumphant TCK conference at the school. Before we left, we got to celebrate Tammy's birthday with her one day, and Brenda's the next day.

Pray for the Plasters in Russia!
